

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

Building Futures with Women and Children is an Alameda County leader, based in San Leandro, providing a safety net of services to help individuals and families rebuild safe and stable lives after homelessness and family violence. To accomplish this aim, the agency provides a continuum of care including two homeless shelters; a domestic violence safe house; a full spectrum of domestic violence outreach services; a transitional and permanent housing site; and rapid rehousing programs which serves target populations including military veterans, families reuniting after CPS involvement, survivors of domestic violence and others.

We are seeking:

CASE MANAGERS

Position Summary:

Case Managers are the key force in developing communities where clients are welcomed and encouraged to participate in services and activities offered by the organization. Case managers are a part of a collaborative service team working toward the goal of ensuring the success of its clients in Alameda County.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's Degree or equivalent; MSW preferred
- Minimum of 2 years of Case Management preferred.
- Knowledge of Alameda County resources for the homeless, victims of domestic violence and underserved populations.
- Domestic Violence Counselor Training Certification preferred or the ability to obtain certification soon after hire.
- Bilingual preferred.
- Ability to conduct educational and/or support group meetings.

Compensation: Commensurate with experience.

Accepting Applications: Until filled.

To Apply: Send your resume and cover letter to HR@bfwc.org

Building Futures with Women and Children is an Affirmative Action /Equal Opportunity Employer which hires without regard to race, gender, color, religion, sexual orientation, national origin, age, physical or mental disability, citizenship status, veteran status, or any other characteristic prohibited by federal and state law.